CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer, if, in his judgment, such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made on sales days between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M., and on other days—except holidays—between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

Delivery may be made, at the discretion of the Association, of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

EC 8/6/17.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

Eduard Charlemont

AUSTRIAN: 1848—1906

1—LE BUVEUR L. R. Nicholl

2/0 12 Panel: Height, 12½ inches; width, 6½ inches

A FULL-LENGTH standing figure of a soldier of the Louis Treize period, in costume of light gray doublet and breeches, underjacket of light buff as indicated on the left arm, red stockings with yellow ribbons tied at the knees, and a wide-brimmed black hat, crowning flowing locks of dark brown. The soldier holds in his right hand a large pewter tankard, and turns his head over his left shoulder, smiling as if about to drink someone's health. Through an open window on the right appears a bit of landscape, and on a table are a sword and broad leather belt.

Signed at the lower right, and dated '84.

Henry Graves Collection, Catalogue No. 3, New York, 1909.

Property of MR. WILLIAM H. HULICK.

Warren B. Davis

2—BESIDE THE FOREST POOL

Height, 13 inches; length, 20 inches

225"

Mrs. Justine B. Koscherak

A FULL-LENGTH nude female figure, in back view, reclining at ease, as if asleep, on a great, smooth bowlder, its gray surface making a foil for luminous flesh. Dark green foliage in the background adds still further emphasis.

Signed at the lower right.

Purchased direct from the artist.

Property of MR. EDWARD G. O'REILLY.

Kimindy Jena

CONTEMPORARY

3—THE TAX GATHERER G. Emanuel

90.00 Panel: Height, 12 inches; width, 7¾ inches

A FULL-LENGTH figure of a young man in Directoire costume and the tricolor cockade in his hat. He carries his cane under his left arm while, with both hands, he holds up a book and pencil. He is evidently "taking notes."

Signed at the lower left, and dated MÜNCHEN 1884.

Purchased from the late T. J. Blakeslee.

From the collection of the late LEON MANDEL.

David Johnson, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1827—1908

4—A HOMESTEAD AT PLAINFIELD, N. J.

3.50 Height, 8¼ inches; length, 11 inches A. P. Gardner

A COMFORTABLE-LOOKING and spacious farm-house, with white walls and dull red chimneys, standing in a grove of trees, is placed in the middle distance on the bank of a stream. The stream and a part of the nearer shore occupy the foreground. Cows are seen coming from the farm down to the brink to water, and a buggy is passing along the road on the right. Over all is a sky of gray clouds with here and there a little bit of blue.

Signed with monogram at the lower left.

On the back of the canvas the title and signature are painted in full, with date 1890.

Property of MR. E. A. GURNEE.

Warren B. Davis

American: Contemporary

5—NUDE FIGURE

Height, 9¾ inches; width, 7¾ inches

Signature (partly erased) on the left (in pool)

Purchased direct from the artist.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

J. Francis Murphy, N.A.

American: 1853—

6—LANDSCAPE

Height, 5 inches; length, 7 inches

A landscape with autumn effects, in which, from a pool in the foreground, level fields extend to a belt of trees; a group of trees and bushes on the right, and a sky of gray and qualified white with a bit of gray pink near the horizon.

Signed at the lower left.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

Ralph Albert Blakelock, N.A.

American: 1847—

7—MUIR BRIDGE, CALIFORNIA

Height, 6¾ inches; width, 4½ inches

The natural rock bridge on the Pacific Coast, called Muir Bridge, appears in the middle of the picture with high, dark cliffs in the foreground. The sea passes through the arch of the bridge and gulls are flying about. A bit of low-toned blue sky is seen above.

From the Frederick S. Gibbs Collection, Catalogue No. 116, New York, 1904.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

Ivan Pokitonow

Russian: 1840—

8—A RURAL EPISODE

Panel: Height, 7¼ inches; length, 10¾ inches

In a field, which occupies the foreground, are seen a horse without harness except a driving bridle, and a peasant woman who is stooping over to examine his right forefoot. On the left, just over a hedge, is a cart, and beyond are level green fields with one or two clumps of trees. The sky is composed of gray clouds.

Signed at the lower right.

From Boussod, Valadon & Co.

Property of Mr. William H. Hulick.

Étienne Prosper Berne-Bellecour

French: 1838—1910

9—AWAITING THE COMMAND John C. Wellwood

1900.6 Panel: Height, 13½ inches; width, 8½ inches

Full-length standing figure of a French cavalryman, whose uniform consists of a steel and brass helmet with horse-hair plume, blue tunic with red epaulettes, white trousers, and low-topped boots. He holds a lighted match in his right hand with which he is about to light his pipe held in the left. The setting is composed of horse water-troughs immediately behind the figure in the spacious courtyard of a military barrack.

Signed at the lower left, and dated 1883.

Property of Mr. William H. Hulick.

Jean Charles Cazin

FRENCH: 1840—1901

10—NIGHT

Panel: Height, 5½ inches; length, 6¾ inches

A STARLIGHT night effect with a house in the center of the composition. A hillock, a roadway leading to the house, and a stable occupy the foreground. Light shows through a window on the side of the house, and also more dimly through a skylight window in the roof. It is probably the dwelling of an artist in the country in France. The sky is dotted with stars and there is a light on the horizon at the extreme right of the picture.

To be sold to close an Estate.

Louis Leloir

FRENCH: 1843—1884

11—FANTAISIE ITALIENNE

Panel: Height, 12¼ inches; width, 8½ inches

A FULL-LENGTH standing figure of a young woman leaning against a gray wall, with pilasters on either side. The hands, clasped below the waist, hold a bunch of red and white flowers, and the costume is composed of draperies of pink, yellow and black.

Signed at the lower right, and dated 1877.

Purchased from the William Shaus Galleries.

By order of an Executrix.

Georges Michel

FRENCH: 1763—1843

12—LANDSCAPE WITH CATTLE

Panel: Height, 9¾ inches; length, 13¼ inches

THIS landscape depicts a stretch of diversified country with rising ground on the left where, among the trees, is a cottage near a road which runs from the left foreground into the middle of the picture. Some cows and a white goat are seen in the roadway, and beyond is a horseman and other figures. The sky is composed of white and gray clouds.

By order of MRS. HAROLD THORNE, daughter of the late H. S. WILSON.

Marie François Firman-Girard

FRENCH: 1838—

13—IN THE GARDEN

Height, 14 inches; width, 10 inches

A PLEASING genre picture, showing a lady in a silk gown of pale pink, seated on a stone bench in a garden, with her head resting on her hands as she looks down at a pet black spaniel. Beside her, on the bench, is a straw hat with black ribbon.

By order of MRS. HAROLD THORNE, daughter of the late H. S. WILSON.

Carleton Wiggins, N.A.

American: 1848—

14—OXFORDSHIRES

Panel: Height, 10 inches; length, 14 inches

A small flock of sheep, with black faces and fine coats of wool, advancing as they crop the grass of green pastures. The sheep occupy the middle of the picture and beyond and above there is a wide stretch of flat country and a strip of gray sky.

Signed at the lower left.

Property of Mr. E. A. Gurnee.

Robert Schleich

German: Contemporary

15—AT THE WATER SIDE

Height, 8¼ inches; length, 16 inches

In the left foreground, where is shown part of the borders of a lake, a deep old-fashioned punt is drawn up while its occupants, a woman with two children, are amusing themselves with a flock of ducks and ducklings. Some of the ducklings have ventured into the shallow water between the punt and the shore and are being fed by one of the children. In the right middle distance is an island, with a church dimly seen, and still farther away are the boundary shores and a range of hills. The sky of warm-tinted clouds is broken by pale sunlight, filtering through.

Signed at the lower right.

From the collection of the late Leon Mandel.

Thomas Moran, N.A.

American: 1837—

16—A MEXICAN HACIENDA, LAKE CUITZEO

Panel: Height, 15 inches; width, 12 inches

In the middle of the foreground is a pool with trees on either side, their foliage framing a view of a Mexican hacienda standing on an eminence on the shore of a lake. All the foreground, and most of the tree foliage, are in shadow, while sunlight illumines the middle distance where stands the building with its white walls.

Signed at the lower right, and dated 1885.

Property of Mr. E. A. Gurnee.

Edward L. Henry, N.A.

American: 1841—

17—SAMUEL IVES FARMHOUSE, GOSHEN, CONNECTICUT

Millboard: Height, 10 inches; length, 14 inches

A brick farmhouse in the center of the picture, with barns and other farm buildings on the right, seen beyond an orchard, which occupies the foreground. A man and a woman picking apples, a well with sweep and a horse and carriage are other features of the composition. Overhead, a summer sky of blue with white clouds.

Signed at the lower right, and dated Sept. '72.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

George H. Boughton, N.A., R.A.

American: 1834—1905

18—WINTER

Millboard: Height, 16 inches; width, 10 inches

A full-length figure of a young girl of the better class of Holland, wearing a pretty costume comprising a crimson bodice, light gray skirt and green apron, with a cape bordered with white fur and a muff of the same; her head crowned by a little cap of light green. She wears gray leather shoes and, with her right foot, is tapping the ice on a pool in the foreground, which cracks under the pressure. A stretch of snow-covered country forms the background.

Signed at the lower right.

Property of Mr. E. A. Gurnee.

Guy Carleton Wiggins, A.N.A.

American: 1883—

19—AFTERNOON: NOANK, CONNECTICUT

Millboard: Height, 12 inches; length, 16 inches

The harbor of Noank, depicted with bright, frank color, showing a pier, a three-master and a man in a skiff, on the left. The shore with buildings, trees and boats at anchor, extends from the left foreground into the middle distance, nearly to the extreme right, where the outside waters meet a headland or opposite shores. On the right the sail of a sloop gives a vivid note of white. In the sky are large masses of clouds, white and gray, and a space of blue shows at the top.

Signed at the lower right.

Purchased direct from the artist.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

Louis Paul Dessar, N.A.

American: 1867—

20—LANDSCAPE

Millboard: Height, 10½ inches; length, 14¾ inches

The edge of a forest, with fine oaks in foliage of the first days of autumn, crosses the composition in perspective from right to left, where there is a glimpse of a distant hillside. The rough land of the foreground shows bowlders, and herbage tinted yellow and red, while the sky exhibits qualified blue and white.

Signed at the lower right.

Purchased direct from the artist.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

William Gedney Bunce, N.A.

American: 1840—1916

21—SUNSET AT VENICE

Panel: Height, 11½ inches; length, 15 inches

The motive is found well out in the Bay of Venice, with the sea extending to a low horizon, where there are a few little dots indicating sails. On the right of the picture are four vessels, the sails of one, with gaff nearly perpendicular, reaching to the top of the canvas. The sky shows tempered tints of yellow white, greenish blue and red, and is reflected in lower values in the water.

Signed W. G. B. Venice at the lower left, and dated '83.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

J. Francis Murphy, N.A.

American: 1853—

22—LANDSCAPE

Height, 8 inches; length, 12 inches

A foreground of pasture land with a pond, at the right, with trees in the middle distance, their autumn foliage approaching the top of the canvas; on the left, a barn and other farm buildings. The distance shows plains extending to the horizon where belts of trees form part of the sky line. The sunset sky is composed of warm pale yellows with intermingled grays and some touches of orange.

Signed at the lower right, and dated '99.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

Robert Cromwell Minor, N.A.

American: 1840-1904

23—LANDSCAPE

Height, 11 inches; length, 15½ inches

An effect of sunset, with a group of tall trees on the right, a pool in the middle foreground and a stretch of country on the left. In the sky, which gradates into tints of blue in the upper part, are evening clouds tinged with pink.

Signed at the lower right.

Property of Mr. Homer Lee.

George H. Bogert, A.N.A.

American: 1864—

24—SUNSET

Panel: Height, 13 inches; length, 16 inches

In the middle distance is a lake, and an outlet in the foreground through which water is running over rocks. Trees on either side of the canvas are reddened by the sunset glow from a sky showing tints of yellow, white, blue, and gray, accented by the reddish glow.

Purchased direct from the artist.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

Carleton Wiggins, N.A.

American: 1848—

25—CATTLE

Height, 12 inches; length, 16 inches

Signed at the lower left, and dated 1911.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

Childe Hassam, N.A.

American: 1859—

26—NOCTURNE: MONTMARTRE

Height, 16½ inches; width, 12½ inches

In the right foreground are the terrasse of a café with white-topped iron tables on the sidewalk, and people passing, the foremost figure being a young woman in a walking dress of gray-purple trimmed with black. One of the cabs of the Urbaine Company, with white-hatted coachman on the box, is drawn up at the curb and overhead are the glowing lights of lamps with red or yellow glass, the street lamps of one of the outer boulevards, lighted windows and, in the left upper corner, the night sky with two or three stars.

Signed at the lower right.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

Leonard Ochtman, N.A.

American: 1854—

27—EVENING

Panel: Height, 11½ inches; length, 16 inches

A landscape with the simple elements of fields in the foreground and a part of the middle distance, trees at the left, a wood stretching beyond them, and an evening sky. The woods and fields, as a whole, show tints of brown and gray. There are some notes of green in the immediate foreground, and the sky is rendered in varied tints of lemon yellow.

Signed at the lower left, and dated 1913.

Property of Mr. Frederic B. Thomason.

J. C. Cavé

FRENCH: CONTEMPORARY

28—HEAD OF A CHILD Estate of Graham

70 00

Height, 16 inches; width, 13 inches

THE head and shoulders of a child, the head in full face view, with blond hair and blue eyes, wearing a white slip. The artist is a pupil of Bouguereau and this clever portrayal is executed in the style of his master.

Signed at the upper right, and dated 1896.

By order of an Executrix.

William Ritschel, N.A.

American: 1864—

29—THE SEAWEED GATHERER

Height, 11¾ inches; length, 16 inches

On a gray, sandy beach, in the foreground, are a cart with a white and a bay horse, and a man loading seaweed. The point of view being elevated, the wide expanse of the ocean appears above the toilers and is illumined by moonlight. A strip of blue-gray sky is at the top of the canvas.

Signed at the lower left.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

J. Agrasot

French: Contemporary

30—FORTUNY'S STUDIO

Panel: Height, 16 inches; width, 11 inches

A studio interior with two female figures; one in an afternoon gown of pink, the other in a visiting dress of white with white hat trimmed with blue ribbon, and wearing a Spanish scarf. The accessories show a large piece of carved furniture with panoplies of arms, musical instruments and bric-a-brac.

Signed at the lower right, and dated 1871.

By order of Mrs. Harold Thorne, daughter of the late H. S. Wilson.

Carleton Wiggins, N.A.

American: 1848—

31—IN THE MEADOWS

Height, 12 inches; length, 18 inches

A red and white, a black, and a white cow are grouped standing in a pool in the foreground; on the left is a clump of trees and on the right a stretch of level country bordered with trees at the horizon. Above is a sky of gray clouds.

By order of Mrs. Harold Thorne, daughter of the late H. S. Wilson.

Eugène Carpentier

French: Contemporary

32—DAY DREAMS

Height, 15 inches; length, 18 inches

Lying on his back on the grass in a shady field in the foreground is a lad with a white jacket, corduroy trousers, and wooden sabots, one of which he has kicked off, while with his face to the sky he nibbles the end of a slender stick broken from a bush, or picked up in the forest, which appears in the distance at the top of the picture. With his right hand he caresses the shoulder of a brown and white setter lying by his side. Goats, belonging to a flock which it is the boy's duty to watch, are seen wandering about and cropping herbage amid the rocks which border the field at the edge of the woods.

Signed at the lower right.

On the back of the canvas is painted a signed declaration by the artist in which he states that this picture was painted by him to the order of A. D'Huyvetter of Antwerp, dated Paris, December, 1887.

Property of Mr. Justus Morris, Jr.

Childe Hassam, N.A.

American: 1859—

33—A LADY IN PINK

Height, 18 inches; width, 15 inches

A FULL-LENGTH figure of a lady in a walking dress of pink trimmed with white fur and wearing a hat trimmed with white likewise, making her way along a snow-covered street. Across the way appear the opposite sidewalk, a fence, and the snow-covered foliage of trees.

Signed at the lower left.

Property of Mr. Frederic B. Thomason.

Antonio Casanova y Estorach

Spanish: 1847—1896

34—FLIRTATION

Height, 16 inches; width, 13 inches

A fat brother of the Carthusian order, in creamy-white hood and habit, is seated beside a Spanish beauty at an open window. As he rests his chin between his thumb and forefinger and ogles her with a leer, the lady holds her fan between his face and hers. Her black hair is dressed with a tortoise-shell comb, from which a white lace mantilla falls over the shoulders of her pink-and-green damask silk bodice.

Signed and dated at the lower center, Antonio Casanova y Estorach, Paris, 1882.

From the William Schaus Collection, Catalogue No. 236, New York, 1912.

Property of a Private Collector.

Gabriel Max

(Gabriel Cornelius von Max)

German: 1840—

35—MAGDALEN

Height, 18 inches; width, 14 inches

A life-size head, slightly turned to the spectator's left, of a young woman, with blond hair falling over her shoulders. It is marked by the able technical qualities of Gabriel Max and by his general feeling for sentiment in painting pictures of women.

Purchased from Arthur Tooth & Sons.

From the collection of the late Leon Mandel.

Albert Neuhuys

Dutch: 1844—1914

36—PEELING POTATOES

Height, 20 inches; width, 16 inches

A seated figure of a young peasant mother, in gray jacket and cap and blue apron with a bowl on her lap, peeling potatoes, while her little girl stands beside her essaying the same task. The setting is a cottage interior with a fireplace on the right where the pot is boiling.

Signed at the lower right.

Property of Mr. Homer Lee.

Frederick A. Bridgman, N.A.

American: 1847—

37—ARABS AT HOME

Height, 13 inches; length, 18½ inches

A group of two men in white bournouses, three women sitting on the ground, and yet another woman standing nearby, appears in the foreground of the composition, which depicts the interior of a rudely constructed building with large timbers supporting the roof. On the left, back of the group, is a woman tending a fire on the floor, and nearby is a white Arabian horse eating his dinner. Rays of light, traversing the blue smoke from the fire, fall from an opening in the roof, and at the extreme left, where a second room is indicated, sunlight falls on the wall.

Signed at the lower left.

Property of Mr. E. A. Gurnee.

Hippolyte Camille Delpy

French: 1841—1910

38—EVENING ON THE RIVER

Panel: Height, 11½ inches; length, 20¾ inches

The waters of a river, smooth in the calm of evening, fill the right foreground, and a portion of the middle distance, and reflect the warm yellows, grays, and pinks of a sunset sky. At the edge of the green bank on the left, a punt is moored, and on the opposite shore, on the right, are groups of trees. A belt of trees also, with the spire of a church, rising above the foliage, is seen on the left.

Signed at the lower right, and dated '99.

Property of Mr. Justus Morris, Jr.

Hugh Bolton Jones, N.A.

American: 1848—

39—EARLY SPRING

Height, 14 inches; length, 20 inches

A stream flows into the foreground between meadows clothed in the fresh green of early spring, bordered by trees which stretch away into the distance, some with bare branches, others tinged with yellow green, and one still retaining some brown leaves of the autumn before. On the left is a stretch of country with hills in the distance, and the sky is filled with gray clouds showing pale blue through the rifts.

Signed at the lower right.

Property of Mr. Justus Morris, Jr.

David Farquharson, A.R.A.

British: Contemporary

40—AFTER THE RAIN

Height, 20 inches; width, 16½ inches

Through an English village lane, with oaks on either side in foliage of dull red, and cottages in the distance, a herd of steers advances to the foreground. The wet roadway and puddles of water reflect the surroundings and the sky of gray.

Signed at the lower left, and dated 1901.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

Jan von Chelminski

Polish: Contemporary

41—THE OUTPOST

Height, 16 inches; length, 26 inches

Two Hussars, of the time of Napoleon I, with blue uniforms and shakos with high black pompoms, are seen standing beside their horses in a snow-covered road in the foreground. On the right of the road is a sign-post, and at a point where it climbs a hilly slope is a group composed of two officers and a huntsman with his dog. One of the officers holds a map in his hands and the huntsman is doubtless being interrogated. The landscape beyond shows a stretch of country and an evening sky with tints of blue, gray, yellow and pink.

Signed at the lower right.

Property of Mr. Graham F. Blandy.

Bruce Crane, N.A.

American: 1857—

42—GOLDEN AFTERNOON

Height, 14 inches; length, 20 inches

Through the meadows of the foreground, on which lie shadows from nearby trees, runs a little stream. Crossing the picture in its middle portion are groups of trees and a rail fence; a house with white walls appears at the left; beyond is indicated a glimpse of a lake and distant hillsides and over all is a sky of gray. The autumn tints which characterize the season are imbued with an atmospheric haze and a golden tone prevails throughout.

Signed at the lower right.

43—A HILL COUNTRY, CONNECTICUT

W. W. Seaman Acc. 1750

Height, 14 inches; length, 20 inches

A road in the left foreground leads into the picture and disappears by a turn into a piece of woods, where the wall and chimney of a house are seen embowered in the foliage. Trees on either side of the roadway reach well upward in the composition. On the right is a comfortable-looking farm-house with white walls and a small red barn nearby. Farther away is a view of rolling country with belts of trees and fields. The effect is in sunlight and the sky shows light clouds with a little pale blue here and there.

Signed at the lower right.

Property of Mr. E. A. Gurnee.

William Anderson Coffin, N.A.

American: 1855—

45—EVENING OVER THE HILLS

Height, 14 inches; length, 20 inches

This landscape shows a stretch of rolling meadow lands and a roadway occupying the foreground, some farm buildings backed by a piece of woods in the middle distance, and farther away a stream and distant hills. The sky, gradated from grayish-pink upward into tempered blue, shows belts of cloud at the horizon, and other clouds floating above, their edges tinged with orange.

Signed at the lower right.

American: 1861—

46—TWILIGHT: SOUTHFIELD, LONG ISLAND

Height, 16 inches; length, 20 inches

A pastoral landscape with a road and a pool in the meadows of the foreground. Two white calves are on the brink of the pool and two slender trees appear on the left at the roadside. Beyond are the roofs of some buildings, clumps of trees, and two large oaks in the right-hand portion of the composition. The sky, with an expanse of gray cloud above, shows a band of red and yellow at the horizon where the sun has disappeared at the close of day.

Signed at the lower right.

Property of Mr. E. A. Gurnee.

American: 1852—1896

47—MOONRISE

Height, 16 inches; length, 22 inches

Level meadows with long shadows cast on the green grass by a sinking sun, behind the spectator, and a belt of trees, crossing the middle distance, among which three poplars rise above the other masses of foliage, are backed by an early evening sky of pink. The full moon, silvered yellow as it rises, is seen near the middle of the picture just above the tree tops.

Signed at the lower right.

Property of Mr. Edward G. O'Reilly.

Ralph Albert Blakelock, N.A.

American: 1847—

48—EARLY EVENING

Height, 16 inches; length, 24 inches

Fields, a little stream on the left, some trees and a red-roofed house, are the elements composing the foreground and middle distance, while beyond, stretching the whole way across the canvas, is a range of blue hills. The important feature of the picture, however, is the sky, which rises from grayish-pink tints at the horizon through various gradations of warm white to pale qualified blue at the top. The brilliancy of the sky is strengthened by the warm general tones used in depicting the fields, trees and other elements.

American: 1854—

54—EARLY AUTUMN

Height, 16 inches; length, 22 inches

A sandy road leads from the left foreground through meadows and fields, with a turn in the middle distance, and continues its course to a wood indicated on the horizon. All the foreground is in shadow, while pale autumn sunshine illumines the rest of the landscape. Some trees with brown foliage are seen in the foreground on the left; a woman is depicted walking along the road in the middle distance, and on the horizon at the left are some white houses and barns. The sky is gray-blue.

Signed at the lower left.

George Herbert McCord, A.N.A.

American: 1848—1909

55—MID-DAY ON THE LAGOON

Height, 24 inches; width, 18 inches

A group of boats appears near the middle of the picture, their sails showing tints of yellow and brown. On the right, close up to a landing-place, is a rowboat with two men. A space of greenish blue is seen amid the clouds in the upper portion of the sky and this is reflected in the water, together with the color of the sails and hulls of the boats.

Signed at the lower right, and dated 1907.

American: 1857—

57—OCTOBER

Height, 16 inches; length, 26 inches

Through level fields, with the green of the grass dulled by the frost and with brown, dried herbage, a stream winds into the middle of the picture, where a belt of trees and strips of light timber beyond shows tints of autumn foliage. Overhead is a sky with fleecy white clouds.

Signed at the lower right.

American: 1866—

58—THE TWO BRAVES

Height, 20 inches; length, 24 inches

On the bank of a stream, hidden from view from the opposite shore by a clump of trees, are two Indians, one who is "sitting on his hunkers" holding a bow and arrow in his hand, and the other looking over as he stands beside him. Both wear feather headdresses, and both are nude except for their loin cloths and moccasins. Across the stream, where the sunlight plays on the grass and foliage, a buck and doe are seen looking over a bush.

60—DOMESTIC HAPPINESS

Height, 20 inches; length, 24 inches

A group showing a young mother with her baby on her lap seated before a fireplace, while her husband leans over her in an affectionate attitude, pressing his face against her hair. The young woman wears a gown of white and the young man, in costume of the Directoire period, pink coat and light blue breeches, seems about to go out, as he wears his hat and has his walking stick under his arm. The furnishings of the room indicate an abode of a family of the upper class.

Signed at the lower left.

61—A FORD, LONG ISLAND

Height, 28 inches; width, 24 inches

A stream in the foreground across which, where it is fordable, has just passed a cart loaded with big logs, drawn by two white horses, and is about to mount the slope of the opposite shore; a low hillside, there, with a group of trees, on the right, in autumn foliage, and a clump of smaller ones, at the left. A sky of light grays shows a bit of blue near the top, balancing a note of the same hue in the carter's jacket, and, together with the broad reflection of it on the water, serves as a foil for the rich autumnal tints in the middle portion of the composition.

63—ÉTAPLES

Height, 24 inches; length, 29 inches

A peaceful evening scene in the Port of Étaples, with two groups of people in the foreground, which is filled by a broad space adjoining a landing-place on the sea. The nearer group is composed of a sailor-man sitting on a barrel, while a young woman, with a child in white dress on her arm, is standing near him; the other group is composed of two fisherwomen and a man, who are busy with the baskets full of fish which they have apparently just lifted from one of the sail-boats moored at the wall, on the left. The moon is rising and a light shines from one of the cottages at the edge of the town on the extreme right. Subdued reds, blues, browns and grays are the principal color notes.

64—IN THE VALLEY OF THE HOUSATONIC

Height, 20 inches; length, 30 inches

A gray barn, and a red corn-crib on the right, with a wide farm road leading past them, a stretch of withered grass and herbage, and a stone wall on the left, make up the foreground. Beyond is a little space of farming land and a timbered hillside. The sky is filled with gray cloud. In the general color scheme of grays qualified with a little yellow-brown and green, the red corn-crib makes a note of value.

65—A BLOW FROM THE NORTHWEST

Height, 25 inches; length, 30 inches

A scene on Fifth Avenue at 34th Street, looking northward. The wide roadway and sidewalks and the buildings on the west side of the street occupy the central part of the canvas, and a snow-fall blown by the wind partly obscures the figures and vehicles, the buildings farther up the street being practically obliterated by the blinding storm. Some bright notes of red, green and yellow in the automobiles and a 'bus climbing the hill spot the white snow-covered roadway.

66—NEW ENGLAND: AUTUMN ON THE HILLS

Height, 25 inches; length, 30 inches

Pastures with herbage seared by early frosts, sloping upward on the left, occupy the foreground. Near the middle of the picture is a group of trees, mostly bare of foliage, and beyond, on the right, fields and belts of trees partly under cloud shadow stretch away into the distance. The sky is composed of gray clouds with a bit of blue in the upper right.

68—THE STONE BRIDGE

170 00 — Height, 20 inches; length, 24 inches — L. C. Noyes

In the middle of the composition is a stone bridge with three arches under which passes a stream, proceeding from the left through a foreground of vivid green. At the left end of the bridge is a clump of oaks and on the right a belt of trees to balance them. Blue hills appear beyond and the sky is composed mostly of clouds of whitish gray with some blue, in the upper part, more or less streaked with white vapor. The effect is in early autumn when leaves have colored but the grass has not yet been bitten by the frost.

69—A VILLAGE STREET IN FRANCE

Height, 24 inches; length, 29 inches

In the foreground a peasant woman, carrying a child on her arm, and another one holding on to her apron, approaches the spectator through a village street lined with low-browed houses of stucco construction with red-tiled roofs. The hour is early evening and lamp-light shines gently from a green-shuttered window in a house on the right. At the end of the street, in the distance, some tree forms are indicated and a warm-tinted gray sky fills the upper part of the canvas.

70—MOONLIGHT

Height, 28 inches; length, 36 inches

A meadow with a pool in the middle foreground near which a horse and cart are dimly seen, a tree on the left with foliage reaching to the top of the canvas, a group of trees beyond, and a belt of trees on the right, occupy the lower half of the canvas. The foliage masses are so placed that a vista opens up showing the full moon just above the distant hills, and in the upper part of the sky are clouds which, both in color and value, serve to balance the darker warm tints of the foreground and middle distance.

71—THE APPROACHING STORM

$25.00 Henry Schultheis

Height, 20 inches; length, 30 inches

A roadway at the left, leading across a sedgy foreground, crosses a stream by a bridge in the middle distance and continues its course past a group of trees on the left. On the right, on the farther shore of the stream, is a mass of trees, their trunks and foliage shining in the sunlight, which illumines that part of the picture. The sky shows great masses of dark gray clouds mingled with others of white, and a space of broken blue above in which cirrus clouds are twisted by the wind. A summer shower is passing on the extreme left.

73—FISHING IN THE BAVARIAN ALPS

Height, 23 inches; length, 41 inches

A party, consisting of a man, a young woman, and a boy, are depicted in a large punt in the smooth deep waters of a lake in the Bavarian Alps. The young woman holds the oars, the man is holding over the side a net, and the little boy is intently watching to see what is about to come up in it from the water. The personages are of the comely Bavarian type and the landscape setting, showing the hills beyond the water, is characteristic of the country.

101—THE POOL IN THE FOREST

Height, 12 inches; length, 15 inches

Deep in the woods, under the shade of great trees in autumn foliage, is a pool amid some great gray bowlders. The low-toned color scheme is characterized by subdued browns, grays and greens, and a bit of sky, appearing in the distance on the right, through an opening in the foliage, serves to accentuate the somber shadows of the forest.

THIS composition shows, on the left, the shore of the sea with a number of fishermen's cottages. A light appears in a window here and there, and a man with a lantern is walking along the beach in the foreground. The right of the picture is occupied by the expanse of the sea, and the moon, dimly seen in the clouded sky, casts its light on the waters. The composition is restful in design and the effect is well rendered.

141—MOONLIGHT

Height, 25 inches; length, 30 inches

In the foreground, on the bank of a river, the trunks of several trees reach up to the top of the canvas. The river and the opposite shore, with lights gleaming from houses, occupy the middle distance. High up in the sky is the moon in a light haze of clouds, its light reflecting on the surface of the river and casting shadows from the tree trunks in the foreground.

143—REVERIE

Height, 33 inches; width, 26 inches

A FULL-LENGTH figure of a young peasant girl in the garden of the well-known artist who painted the picture. Green bushes and flowers of many hues, with a glimpse of the river on the right, the roofs of several buildings embowered among trees, hills in the distance, and a sky of gray with a few spaces of blue, form the setting. The girl is depicted standing near a stone wall, on which rests her basket; her right hand resting on the hip and the left lightly holding her chin. The head is inclined slightly and her attitude expresses the title given to the picture.

144—THAWING WEATHER

Height, 30 inches; length, 36 inches.

Here and there, in the gray meadows of the foreground, are patches of snow. On the hillside, which crosses the picture in the middle distance, patches are also seen through the trunks of a belt of trees. The hillside is crowned by a stretch of forest and above is a sky of pale qualified grays. The predominating tints of the color scheme are grayish and brownish green, violet and white.

147—THE CLOSE OF DAY

Height, 28 inches; length, 40 inches

The waters of a pond fill most of the foreground, reflecting the brilliant hues of the sky, which shows the sun setting amid clouds of red and gray. The dark foliage of trees, both on the right and the left, helps to enforce the concentration of light in the lower part of the sky near the middle of the picture. A man in blue jacket passing across the meadows on the right, a house with low white walls and red roofs, and a line of hills in the distance, are other elements of the composition.

156—EVENING IN THE FOREST OF FONTAINEBLEAU

Height, 25 inches; length, 39 inches

The composition shows one of the well-made straight roadways that traverse the beautiful Forest of Fontainebleau, running from the left foreground into the middle distance. On the opposite side of the road, the mass of the forest appears against an evening sky of qualified blue in the upper portion, gradating down to warm evening tints below. On the extreme right, in the foreground, are several large trees with foliage extending into the right upper portion of the canvas. Large bowlders here and there catch the evening light and form accents of gray which are valuable in the general scheme of color.

163—THE ADORATION OF THE MAGI

Canvas: Height, 96½ inches; length, 120 inches

On the extreme left are observed the heads of the ass and the ox. Then towards the right the Virgin holds the Child on her knees. She has a grayish-white cloth over her head, she wears a red dress with white sleeves and blue drapery; her feet are bare. Beside her is St. Joseph draped in neutral tones. In front of the Virgin, the Wise Man with the white hair and beard who holds out to the Child a basin filled with pieces of gold. He wears a simple white alb, over which is thrown a pink chasuble with a golden stole. In the middle of the picture the black King with white cloth around his head, and over his body an ample red cloak lined with gold and yellow with golden fringes and dressed red. The very long skirt of the red cloak is supported at the end of the picture by a pretty page boy whose head and leg are alone seen. Behind the negro King is the third King bearing a gold censer, dressed in a neutral tinted grayish cloak over a dark-blue dress, and having black hair and beard. Behind this last King a tall page and a negro whose head and neck alone are seen, two men on horseback, one wearing a red cap and the other a cloak. Finally coming down a slope, six men, four of whom are soldiers, one officer and a Court dignitary.

AUTHENTICITY: The above descriptive particulars were drawn up by the late Mr. Max Rooses, the eminent authority on Rubens, and dated Antwerp, December 7, 1912. Mr. Max Rooses also wrote: "The composition is by Rubens entirely, and so are the principal figures. The Virgin is entirely painted by the hand of Rubens, as well as the child Jesus, of a beautiful bright color, standing out clearly; St. Joseph of a moderately conspicuous color by the hand of Rubens. The hand of St. Joseph is much more touched up than the rest. The Wise Man with the white hair is entirely by the hand of Rubens. The painter has placed a clear note in the middle of the pieture; the drawing of this figure is less careful. The Negro King is the dominating feature of the picture. The red cloak trimmed with yellow and with a white fur eollar fills the entirc pieture with a remarkably brilliant touch and is one of the most admirablc pieees the master evcr produced. The light on the lining flashes thc rcd eolor with thc dark shades standing off against a brilliant light eolor, one of the most bcautiful pieecs of coloring it is possible to see. They form a blaze of color calculated to eelipse the richest picture in tones, and thcy dominate this picture powerfully and happily. The littlc page who holds thc skirt of the eloak adds a broadly painted note of color and beauty, without very sueeessful drawing, but admirablc as a feature of the whole. The figures in thc baekground declinc in valuc and liveliness. The black-haired King and the Courticr are pretty abundantly retouched by Rubens; the steers, vaguer in thc background, are exccuted by a pupil. Thc hcads of the ox and the ass and the column on the ground are retouehed by Rubens, in order to bring them into harmony with the vibrating part of thc picture.

"Rubens has divided this pieture into three grounds. Thc foreground contains the Virgin, the Infant, the old man with the white hair, tlie Negro King and the littlc page, to which arc addcd the heads of the oxen and the broken recumbent column. The second ground contains St. Joseph, the blaek-bearded Wise Man, the courticr, the tall page and tlie black scrvant. In the third ground are the seven figures in the background, and the latter itself.

"The composition is facile and ample. The picture does not possess the exceptionally high value of his bcst productions, but it is authentic and would do credit to a high-elass collection. To sum up, the picture is composed by Rubens; it is painted by his hand as regards the figures in the foreground, and by that of a pupil retouched by Rubens in the baekground figures." (Translation.)

HISTORY: This picture was painted for the prineipal Altar of the Church of St. Martin in Bergues, French Flanders. It was sold in 1766 by the church authoritics to meet the expenses for the repair of the building, and was bought by the celebrated amateur, Randon de Boisset. On the sale of his Gallcry in 1777, the upset price of 10,000 livres (francs) was not reached. At Lebrun's sale in 1791 it was sold at 9,500 francs and at Robit's sale in 1801 for 7,950 francs, when it was purchased for Cardinal Fesch. It remained in the Cardinal's fine collection until after his death in 1839. This Gallery was dispersed at the Palais Ricci, Rome, during the spring of 1845, and this Rubens is described at great length in the Expert George's "Catalogue Raisonné," No. 199 (pp. 222-226). It was acquired by Thibaut at 2,500 "écus romains" (13,750 francs) for a member of the family (the Cardinal was Napoleon's uncle), in which it appears to have remained until March 12, 1853, when it was sold at Christie's as the property of Charles Lucien Bonaparte, Prince de Canino; it then realized £1,200, and was bought by Bentley, the well-known dealer. Since then it has been practically lost.

The picture is fully described in Smith's "Catalogue Raisonné," Part 2, No. 119, where the size is not correctly given. It has been engraved by Nicolas Ryckman, with various differences in details, the engraver choosing an upright form for his engraving and not that of the picture, which is oblong.

VERSIONS OF THE SAME SUBJECT: Rubens painted this subject several times:—(1) In the Madrid Museum, done in 1610; (2) Brussels Museum, done 1618-19, for the Capucin Fathers of Tournai; (3) Louvre, about 1627, for the Annunciades of Brussels; (4) Dublin Gallery, belonging to Lord Ardilaun, repetition of the preceding by a pupil; (5) an example done in 1621 for the Church of Ste. Gudule—this has disappeared; (6) Church of St. Jean, Maines; (7) the same, a sketch, the property of the Marquis of Bute, both painted in 1624; (8) Lyons Museum, a pupil's work retouched by Rubens about 1619; (9) Antwerp Museum, 1624, done for the Church of the Abbey St. Michel at Antwerp; (10) The Hermitage, St. Petersburg, pupil's work touched by the master; (11) the above described version for the Church of St. Martin, Bergues St. Winoc; (12) the Duke of Westminster's version done for the Convent of the Dames Blanc at Louvain, of which there is a sketch in the Wallace Collection; and (13) the version done for the famous printer, Balthasar Moretus, at the New Palace, Potsdam.

192—MOONLIGHT NEAR ROME

Height, 9 inches; length, 13 inches

The full moon, very white in the early night, is emerging from a patch of nebulous clouds which still veil without concealing the lower segment of the disk. A tall pile of architecture of gray, red and brown at the left rises into the light, boats and people in them being discerned in the gloom at its base, in the river which forms the foreground. This is crossed by a stone bridge of numerous arches, its roadway lighted by fixed lamps which glow before shadowy domes and roof-lines of the dim distance. In the immediate foreground the stream's rippling surface is lighted by yellow-white reflections of the emergent moon.

203—A SCENE IN THE ORIENT

Height, 16 inches; width, 12 inches

The walls of a fine building, with a door-way in the middle and a flight of stone steps, fill the canvas and are depicted with tints of pink, gray, blue, and green, according to the pattern of the tiles which ornament the façade. Looking out from the door-way is a man in a loose Eastern costume of white, with a white turban, as he speaks to another man in red and blue mounted on a horse, while he holds another with a green saddle ready to ride. 228—A WAYSIDE SHRINE

Height, 30 inches; width, 20 inches

A FULL-LENGTH standing figure of a peasant girl, with black kerchief on her head, pinkish red bodice with undersleeves of white and blue, skirt of gray pinned up, underskirt of brown, and wooden shoes, at the base of a roadside shrine, about to kiss the feet of the Saviour, the lower part of whose image appears in the picture. The setting is composed of a landscape with gray sky. At the foot of the shrine is a bunch of wild flowers on a bowlder, and a water jug stands on the ground.

Signed at the lower left G.H.B., and dated 1865.

By order of an Executrix.

Daniel Ridgway Knight

American: 1845—

229—GOSSIP BY THE RIVERSIDE

Height, 22 inches; length, 29 inches

Two young peasant women, one with a wheelbarrow, and the other standing nearby with a pail on her arm, are seen in a roadway occupying the right foreground, and are chatting with a man who is sitting in a punt drawn up at the side of the road where the river, occupying the left portion of the picture, flows along bordered with reeds. Farther away on the edge of the road are some women washing clothes, and in the middle distance, where the river makes a turn, are the buildings of a town and a line of hills. The sky is composed of gray and white clouds.

Signed at the lower right, and dated Paris, 1880.

Thomas E. Waggaman Sale, Catalogue No. 92, January, 1905.

To be sold to close an Estate.

AMERICAN: CONTEMPORARY

230—BON VOYAGE

Height, 34 inches; width, 20 inches

A THREE-QUARTER-LENGTH life-size figure of a little girl whose blond hair is seen about her brows under the rim of a black cap, her shoulders covered by a gray-green kerchief, and the rest of her costume showing a sleeve of red and an apron of dark blue. With her right hand she holds up a wicker basket before her, and in her left, with a finger resting on the far side of the basket, she holds the upper part of a family umbrella.

Signed at the upper right.

Property of MR. JUSTUS MORRIS, JR.

Bruce Crane, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1857—

231—THE WOODS IN WINTER

Height, 25 inches; length, 30 inches

A ROAD leads from the middle foreground through a piece of woods, trees lining it on either side, and the ground covered with snow. The trunks of some beech trees in the left foreground are relieved with notes of black and gray against the masses of the woods beyond, which show tints of gray and brown. Through the branches in the upper part of the picture is seen a winter sky of pale blue.

By order of MRS. HAROLD THORNE, daughter of the late H. S. WILSON.

Henry Farrer

American: Contemporary

232—THE COUNTRY BRIDGE

Water Color: Height, 23 inches; length, 34 inches

A road, its width filling the entire immediate foreground, leads directly into the middle of the picture and there crosses a stream by a bridge of simple, old-fashioned construction. A woman and child are on the bridge walking away from the spectator. On either side of the roadway are level fields of tall grass, and on the right, in the middle distance, are a group of stately trees and a farmhouse with its buildings. The hour is sunset; bright tints are seen in the sky in proximity to the dark foliage masses near the middle of the picture, and cirrus clouds, with spaces of blue, fill the upper portion of the canvas.

Signed at the lower left, and dated 1888.

Property of Mr. Justus Morris, Jr.

Paul Helleu

French: 1859—

233—A LADY WITH A HARP

Pastel: Height, 30 inches; width, 25 inches

One of Helleu's clever pastel studies, depicting a lady in dress of white and with wide-brimmed black hat, reclining on a sofa. The head and the upper half of the figure are seen through the strings of a harp which stands in the foreground before her, and the fingers of the right hand are lightly touching it. On the wall at the right, back of the sofa, are two medallions.

Signed at the lower left.

Property of Mr. Graham F. Blandy.

Eastman Johnson, N.A.

American: 1824—1906

234—LANDSCAPE N. A. Johnson

1700 Height, 25 inches; length, 36 inches

An American farm landscape with a pool in which ducks are swimming in the foreground, a pasture with willow trees on the left, and a barn, a great elm, and two other smaller trees on the borders of the pasture. Several cows and some chickens are in a field on the right, and beyond lies a stretch of country with a distant line of hills. A summer sky of blue with white clouds indicates the season, and sunlight casts shadows across the foreground.

Signed at the lower left, and dated 1871.

Property of Mr. Frederic B. Thomason.

George Herbert McCord, A.N.A.

American: 1848—1909

235—THE APPROACH OF FLOOD TIDE: ENGLISH COAST

Height, 24 inches; length, 36 inches

On the right are three sailing vessels with their hulls resting on a wide beach and about to be lifted by the fast incoming waters of the tide. The beach is already mostly covered with water and a number of fisher-folk are seen wading in it, while gulls skim over the surface. On the left, a little way out to sea, is a sailing vessel and yet farther away is another. A shore with chalk cliffs runs from the right of the picture back of the three vessels and fades away in the middle distance. Over all is a sky of gray clouds and a space of pale blue in the upper part.

Signed at the lower right.

Property of Mr. Frederic B. Thomason.

236—MOTHER AND CHILD

Height, 37 inches; width, 25 inches

A three-quarter-length figure of a young woman in peasant costume of dark blue and brown with a red kerchief on her head, holding in her arms a little girl. The figure is standing amid the wild flowers of a field, and both mother and child are looking upward at two butterflies.

Signed at the lower right.

By order of Mrs. Harold Thorne, daughter of the late H. S. Wilson.

Henry Golden Dearth, N.A.

AMERICAN: 1864—

237—EVENING

Height, 24½ inches; length, 46 inches

A NARROW country road winds its way from the middle foreground across the fields to low hills in the distance. The green and brown of grass and herbage are depicted in the half light of evening, and the moon is rising in a gray sky.

Signed at the lower right, and dated 1889.

Property of MR. HOMER LEE.

FRENCH:

238—RETRIBUTION

Height, 67 inches; width, 51 inches

A GROUP of two life-size figures, one a priest in black soutane standing beside a table in the sacristy, and the other a young woman in a gown of gray-green kneeling before him with her face in her handkerchief. The priest's armchair stands empty beside her, where he had been sitting before she came to confess. Whatever the trouble, it is connected with a jewelled bracelet and chain which the father holds in one hand while he kindly touches the erring daughter on her shoulder.

Signed at the lower left, and dated 1901.

Purchased from the artist.

From the collection of the late LEON MANDEL.

Édouard Portielje

BELGIAN: 1859—

239—THE PET BIRD

Height, 38 inches; width, 30 inches

A THREE-QUARTER-LENGTH standing figure of a blond-haired young woman, in side view, with head turned slightly towards the spectator, holding up in her hands a little green cage in which is a bird with plumage of orange and black. The costume consists of a light blue basque and skirt of yellow with a pattern of flowers. On the right is a table covered with a rug on which is a bowl of fruit and a tall covered goblet.

Signed at the lower right and ANTWERP.

By order of MRS. HAROLD THORNE, daughter of the late H. S. WILSON.
